CITY ITEMS.
EVERY department of the CRAWFORD STORE was doing a rushing, roaring business yesterday, and no wonder when you consider the fact that the store is the only one which they have marked their whole summer stock!

NEW TRUST CONCERN FOR CITY.
Guarantee Company Incorporated With $400,000 Capital Stock.

Articles of Incorporation were filed with the Recorder of Deeds yesterday by the Guarantee Trust Company. The new company is to have a capital of $400,000 and surplus of $20,000.
The president of the company is General R. G. Farrar, United States Subtreasurer.
The directors are: N. J. Atkinson, J. C.
McLean, Doctor William P. Hill, A. P. Mc-Intyre, Robert S. Doubleday and B. G. Farrar, all of St. Louis; George D. Locier, Jerseyville, Ill.; S. S. Crissman, Windsor, Pa.; W. S. Risley of New York.

In addition to these the following, it is said, will be added to the directors: W. L.
Davis, Jersey City, N. J.; W. J. Davis, Jersey City, N. J.; Charles H. Hinchman, Philadelphia; N. H. Lattimer, Seattle, Wash., and W. C. Patterson of Los Angeles, Cal.
According to one of the promoters of the new institution, it is organized to do a general trust company business, and to be a specialty of supplying fidelity and indemnity bonds. The directors believe there is a large field here for the latter class of business.

A committee of managing directors will be announced within the next few days which will have charge of the question of a location and the election of officers.

Warrant Charges Assault to Kill.
Louis Foster of No. 188 Chambers street is charged in a warrant issued yesterday morning with assault to kill. It is alleged that Foster struck Ole Weed of No. 816 Chambers street with a wash bowl and a pitcher, inflicting a scalp wound and slight fracture of the skull. The trouble between the two men, according to the police, was caused by Foster stepping on Weed's 3-year-old child, which was asleep on the floor. Both men are teamsters and had been close personal friends.

NOME HOTEL FIRE FATAL TO THREE.

Cook Who Threw Oil on Flames Is Held by Coroner on the Charge of Manslaughter.

ONE VICTIM FROM PITTSBURG.

Bodies of R. M. Hayes and His Wife Recovered, and It Is Believed That They Met Death by Suffocation.

Seattle, Wash., July 20.—The Times prints the following from Nome under date of July 19:

Nearly a block of charred and blackened ruins mark the site of what was the Golden Gate hotel and adjacent buildings.
The fire started at 5 o'clock Sunday, when nearly all of the guests were in their beds.
There was an explosion. Cook Burr probably threw a half baking powder can of oil on the flames.
The hotel was a big three-story structure, a regular death-trap, with no fire escapes or emergency exits, and it burned like a tinder box.

R. M. Hayes, a millionaire of Pittsburg, and his wife were on the third floor and it is thought that, on reaching the corridor and finding a mass of flames, they returned to their room and were suffocated. Their bodies were recovered, as have also those of German D. Grege of Freeport, Pa.
Daggett and Harris, proprietors of the warehouse, and these losses, with those of the hotel, make a total loss aggregating nearly $200,000.

The cook, Burr, has been held for manslaughter as a result of the Coroner's inquest.

SAYS PROSECUTION IS UNFAIR.

Beavers's Attorney Offers to Bring Client to Court.

New York, July 20.—Counsel for George W. Beavers, formerly of the Post-Office Department, against whom the two indictments have been found, made a statement to-day, saying that he has communicated with District Attorney Young offering to produce Mr. Beavers before a United States Commissioner for a preliminary hearing, but that Colonel Young did not care to accept that offer.

The statement characterizes the course of the District Attorney as irregular and unfair, "inasmuch as it denies him (Beavers) the opportunity to be heard, and precludes him from ascertaining anything of the nature of the charge against him prior to the date of his trial."

have been issued by the New York Central's passenger department. They are Numbers "29" and "30" of the famous "Four-Track Series" and both are literary gems and compendiums of railway travel. General Passenger Agent George H. Daniels has incorporated various suggestions made by bright people, and he has tried to include in these folders all that could reasonably be put into such books.

They are worth a prominent position in BRINKMEYER'S DEATH CAUSED BY ENGINE.

Police Now Discredit Theory That Laborer Was Murdered and Robbed.

CARRIED BUT LITTLE MONEY.

Four Persons Under Arrest and Are Held for the Inquest
This Morning.

The police, after investigating the death of Frederick Brinkmeyer of No. 325 Blair avenue, who was killed Saturday night by Buchanan and Hall streets, now think that the death was accidental, caused by a Terminal train. Murder was the theory first entertained.
The baseball bat which Rose Este of No. 142 Anglerod street held when she called the old man out of a saloon on Broadway was found yesterday afternoon by the police in a shed in the rear of her home. The handle was broken, but it was not a new break. No evidence was found indicating that it had been used as a weapon.
The persons arrested Sunday are still held for the inquest.

FREDERICK BRINKMEYER.
Who was found on the Terminal tracks Saturday night, and who may have been the victim of foul play.

held for the Coroner. They are: Emma Vogt of No. 325 Blair avenue, niece of Brinkmeyer; Rose Este, No. 142 Anglerod street; Tony Kriger, No. 289 North Twelfth street, and Nellie Connors, No. 141 Anglerod street. The first three are at the Fifth District Police Station. Nellie Connors was taken to police headquarters.

The inquest which was to have been held yesterday was postponed until this morning.
The body was claimed by his wife, Mrs.
Lottie Brinkmeyer. They have been separated for the last six years.
Brinkmeyer had been boarding with his sister, Mrs. Mary Vogt, since he left his wife. Mrs. Vogt stated last night that he was a hard-working man and that he seldom carried a large sum of money.
Those at the police station stated that yesterday that he had no object to kill him.
The Este girl admits having carried about a half a dozen dollars. He gave them 15 cents, which was all that he had.
After talking with the girls for a while he said he was going. They asked him to go home, since he was under the influence of liquor. He would not go. Mrs. Vogt said she saw him when he was walking down Buchanan street east of Broadway. The girl then went home, at least the Vogt girl did. Her mother says that she returned home about 10 o'clock.
All of the girls state that they had more reason for letting the old man live than to kill him, as he was always good to them and gave them money whenever they asked him for it. Brinkmeyer had a life insurance policy for $100 and had $100 in the Bremen Bank. This is all he had.

cipal streets and connect the city with the coal mines, three miles out.

DAY OF VIOLENT DECLINES IN STOCKS.

Liquidation in Specialties Demortalizes the New York Market, Causing New Low Records.

ROCK ISLAND VERY WEAK.

Capitalists Express Much Doubt as to Financing the Proposed New Line From Chicago to New Orleans.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
New York, July 20.—Scattered liquidation, which became violent in special stock-markets, again appeared in Wall street to-day, with the result that the stock market became weak and demoralized.
The volume of business was not large in view of the great excitement which the big declines in the specialties caused, but it was noticeable that there was fair support for the leading railroad shares.
In such issues as Amalgamated Copper, Brooklyn Rapid Transit, St. Louis and San Francisco second preferred and certificates, and New York Air Brake, there were actively declines ranging from 3 to 11 points.
In New York Central, Pennsylvania, St.
Paul and Baltimore and Ohio, the selling appeared to meet considerable resistance.
New low records were established for several stocks, among which were United States Steel common and Rock Island common and preferred.
Special weakness was displayed in the so-called Rock Island issues, which include the Rock Island common stock, the Rock Island and Pacific Railroad, which is now superceded by the Chicago and North Western, and the Rock Island preferred.
This stock was sold at 147, but the amount was only a block of 100 shares.
The new Rock Island common stock dropped to 25 and the preferred to 65.
Chicago and Eastern Illinois certificates were also weak, the Rock Island, by the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, which, in turn, dropped 10 points to 100.
These common stock certificates of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois bear interest at the rate of 10 per cent, and they were taken over by the Frisco on a basis of 25.
When they were first traded in on the Stock Exchange, the Chicago and Eastern Illinois agreement and the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, these certificates sold at 100.
Some doubts were expressed in Wall street to-day over the advisability of financing the new system, which the Rock Island has planned from Chicago to the Gulf and Baltimore. It is a matter of the existing branches and an interlocking of securities for those of a new building company. The new Rock Island common stock dropped to 25 and the preferred to 65.
Chicago and Eastern Illinois certificates were also weak, the Rock Island, by the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, which, in turn,
dropped 10 points to 100.
These common stock certificates of the

and Miss Emma Yetter.

R. G. Lafferty and Miss Emma Yetter of Middletown, Mo., who were married last week in Clayton, are apparently having a hard time keeping their marriage quiet, as they hoped they could do by visiting the Missouri Grange.
The pastor, who was partly absent yesterday by the following letter from C.
Pearson, editor of the Middletown Clipper, addressed to the Reverend J. M. Stutz, who performed the marriage ceremony.
Reverend Mr. Stutz, Clayton, Mo.: Dear Sir: Did you or did you not perform a marriage cermony this week for one R. G. Lafferty and Miss Emma Yetter? The parties, it is alleged, are in the St. Louis office. The young lady is a sister of the one I think I have a right to know, even beyond a "news" right.
Very truly,
C. PEARSON.

THE CLAYTON PASTOR, IN REPLYING TO THE LETTER, answered as follows:

I cannot tell a lie. I did it, but I won't do it any more. Yours truly, J. M. STUTZ, CASSINI DENIES SETTLING THE MANCHURIAN AFFAIR.

But Fully Expects Agreeable Arrangements With United States—Discusses Jews' Petition.

Paris, July 20.—A representative of the Associated Press has had an interview with Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador to the United States, who is here spending part of his leave of absence. He said:
"It is not correct, as called, that I arranged with Secretary Hay, before my departure, the question of open ports in Manchuria."
"It is true that Mr. Hay called on me June 28, but it was a friendly visit and entirely unofficial. The Manchurian ports were mentioned during our conversation, but no definite arrangement was completed. The conversation was quite cordial, friendly, but it did not go beyond that."
"I expect, however, that a mutually satisfying arrangement will be reached. The Manchurian questions will eventually be reached between the two Governments. But I repeat, no such arrangement has been made yet. What has been done by the Charge since my departure I do not know."
"Regarding the Jewish question, the United States Government already knew that such petition would not be received. In its domestic affairs, I do not know about the matter."
"My relations have always been pleasant during my stay at Washington. My present absence is due to the fact that I am taking a much-needed holiday. I did not see the President before I left Washington because he was absent. I saw Mr. Hay, however, and he expressed his regret that I could not return to my post as soon as my leave expires, which will be in three months."
Count Cassini will remain here ten days longer and then will go to St. Petersburg.

FATHER THINKS $3 A WEEK PLENTY TO SUPPORT A WIFE.

Emil Flaig Makes This Declaration to Assistant Prosecuting Attorney in Complaint Against Son.

Emil Flaig of No. 1719 South Eleventh street yesterday morning told Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Dalton that he considered $3 a week enough for a young man who has a wife to support.
Flaig called upon the Assistant Prosecuting Attorney with the request to set in getting part of his son's salary, which is $8 a week.
The father told Mr. Dalton that his son ran away from home Saturday and was married to Laura Campbell of East St.
Louis.
"My son is only 29 years old, and I think he should be compelled to give me $3 a week until he is of age," said Flaig. "Is there not a law by which I can compel him to do it?"
Mr. Dalton replied that he could not assert Flaig's claim. "I don't know that I would if I could," said Mr. Dalton. "I do not see how Flaig is going to support a wife on $3 a week, let alone cutting it in two for him."
Tony Flaig works in the doughnut department of an East St. Louis bakery. He was married to Miss Campbell at Clayton and they are now living with her family across the river.
